

Parish of Killavullen & Annakisha

Easter Week (April 21-27)

19.15

Easter Day of the Lord's Resurrection: Today we celebrate the hope God has brought to the world by raising Jesus from the dead. 1st R.: St. Peter's proclamation (kerygma) of the Christian faith. 2nd Reading: Our life-destiny is "hidden in Christ". Gospel: Mary of Magdala is the first witness (apostolos) to the Resurrection: she helps Peter and John to believe. We too are called to share the Good News. A smallies colouring sheet about today's Gospel is available from the Usher.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it
This is the day (x2)
That the Lord has made

Recessional Hymn
Sing! Sing! Sing alleluia.
This is the day the Lord has made.
Dance! Dance! Dance alleluia. This is the day the Lord has made.
Let us rejoice and be glad. This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad. This is the day.

Killavullen Community Council: Next Saturday, April 27 the annual Spring Clean of the parish will take place, beginning at 10.00am at the Community Centre, Killavullen, where gloves and bin bags are available. John (086-1591585) or Rosie (087-1320325) will collect the litter you have gathered. Please wear hi-vis jackets; child litter wardens must be carefully supervised. Let's all play our part in cleaning up our environment (and keeping it clean afterwards!)

Young Christian Workers: The next meeting will take place on Saturday, May 4 in Killavullen Church Meeting Room following the 7.00pm Mass. A concert "Anthems at Annakisha" is planned for October 4. All assistance from 18-30 year olds will be appreciated. See ycw.ie or contact Leah McCarthy Cahill (087-3315117) or Fr. Gerard for details.

The 2019 Cloyne Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock will take place on Sunday May 12. A local bus will depart Killavullen that morning. Please contact Kathleen Hanley to reserve a place: 086-1556360.

Lough Derg Pilgrimage Season 2019: A season guide to one day retreats and the traditional three day pilgrimages at St. Patrick's Purgatory is available at doorways or see the poster at Church noticeboards.

Our gratitude to all who prepared our churches for Easter and who assisted with the ceremonies of the Triduum. We thank the cleaners, the sacristans and floral decorators; those who help maintain the Churchyards; the ushers, altar-servers, Ministers of the Word and the Eucharist; the Choir and musicians. May the grace of this holy season fill the hearts of all our parishioners through your service.

Bon Mot: "The darker the night, the brighter the stars; the deeper the grief, the closer is God." (Fyodor Dostoevsky).

Ionsparáid: You cannot build a reputation on the things you are going to do; but you can on the things you have done.
