

Parish of Killavullen & Annakisha 19.32

Twenty-Fifth Week of Ordinary Time (September 22-28, 2019)

Twenty Fifth Week: 1st Reading: The poorest bear the brunt of dishonesty. The prophet Amos defends their rights. 2nd Reading: We pray for those who govern us. Gospel: Money can be made into a false god. To worship the one true God is to be guided by a very different system of values.

The second collection this weekend will be the annual collection for the education of Students to the Priesthood and Permanent Deacons: This year the Diocese of Cloyne has two students preparing for the priesthood; the cost of educating a student for one year is €25,000. We pray for an increase in their number in the years ahead.

The Parish Choir: Leads the singing at the 11.30am Mass fortnightly. Practices resume this Monday, September 23 at 8.00pm, and are generally held fortnightly. Entrance Hymn -

As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.
 Joined by the Spirit, washed in the blood
 part of the body, the Church of God.
 As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.

Recessional:

Christ be near at either hand,
 Christ behind, before me stand.
 Christ with me where e'er I go.
 Christ around, above below.
Christ my life and only way.
Christ my lantern night & day,
Christ be my unchanging friend.
Guide and shepherd to the end
