Parish of Killavullen & Annakisha

Thirty-Third Week of Ordinary Time (November 17-23, 2019)

Thirty Third Sunday: 1st Reading: The world, as we know it, is passing. Its end will be a time of God's judgment. Those on the side of righteousness need not fear. 2nd Reading: The Thessalonians were expecting the end to happen in their lifetime and even gave up work! St. Paul encouraged them to keep "quietly working" for the sake of God's kingdom. Gospel: Jesus reminds his disciples that God will see them through whatever calamities may happen. They will be persecuted for their faith in him. "Your endurance will win you your lives."

Entrance Hymn -

As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.
 Joined by the Spirit, washed in the blood
 part of the body, the Church of God.
 As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
 One with each other, Jesus is here.

Recessional:

Christ be near at either hand,
 Christ behind, before me stand.
 Christ with me where e'er I go.
 Christ around, above below.
Christ my life and only way.
Christ my lantern night & day,
Christ be my unchanging friend.
Guide and shepherd to the end

Children's Liturgy of the Word – will get underway in the next few weeks. At Sunday Masses, children from Junior Infants to Second Class will be invited to go to their church meeting room, after the start of Mass, to listen to that Sunday's bible story being explained in a child-friendly way. The children will re-join the congregation for the Our Father. A training meeting will take place this Monday night at 7.30pm. Please contact Fr. Gerard if you would like to be an adult leader.

Parish Pastoral Council: A Meeting of the Council will take place this Tuesday (November 19) at 7.30pm in the Parish Office.

Nano Nagle Birthplace: The Presentation Sisters invite you to join them for the concluding nights of their Novena commemorating The Presentation of Our Lady, on November 19 and 20 (Tuesday and Wednesday) from from 7.30pm – 8.00pm.

"Awakening to our Children's Future", a workshop by environmentalist Lorna Gold will take place at Nano Nagle Birthplace on November 2. €65 including morning tea/coffee and lunch. Bookings: 022-26411

CPR Training - Killavullen GAA together with the Irish Heart Foundation will hold a one hour free CPR training session in Killavullen Community Hall on November 23 at 9.30, 11.00am or 12.30pm. Information: Helen Cagney on 085 7041674. This is open to everyone over 18. CPR saves lives so we would be delighted if you could attend.

Coffee Morning - A Coffee Morning will be held in Killavullen Community Hall next Sunday from 10.00am to 1.00 pm. This event is being organised by three local boys (Sean Murphy, Sean Palmer and Michael Cagney) as part of the fundraising campaign for street children of Kolkata (Hope Foundation). Your support is appreciated.

BonMot: Forget the mistake; remember the lesson.
