

Paróiste Cill an Mhuilinn & Ath na Cise

An Triú Seachtain den Charghas (Márta 15 - 21, 2020)

20.10

Third Sunday of Lent. 1st Reading: During the 40 years of the Exodus the people thirst in the desert. Moses strikes a rock that produces water. 2nd Reading: Jesus paid the price for our sins and reconciled us with God. Gospel: At the village well, the Samaritan finds in Jesus the source of "living water". In these 40 days of our self-imposed desert, we discover again our thirst for God.

The second collection today is for Chaplaincy Services to Irish Emigrants. Last year 50,000 Irish people emigrated. Our prayers and support are with them as we approach our national feast-day.

Entrance Hymn – Glory and praise to our God. Who alone gives light to our days. Many are the blessings he bears; To those who trust in his ways. We the daughters and sons of him Who built the valleys and plains. Praise and wonder our God has done, in every heart that sings:

Recessional:

Bind us together, Lord, bind us together, with cords that cannot be broken; bind us together, Lord, bind us together, bind us together with love. There is only one God, there is only one King, there is only one Body - that is why we sing:
