

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Twenty-Seventh Week in Ordinary Time (October 4-10, 2020)

20.39

Twenty-Seventh Sunday:

1st Reading: The Kingdom of God is like a vineyard: wonderful, beautiful, but also requiring work if it is to produce good fruit.

Psalm 79: The vineyard that is creation is under attack.

2nd Reading: Do not worry to excess; the God of peace is with you.

Gospel: God's envoys (the prophets) and even his own son, were rejected by the "chief priests and the elders of the people". Today's Gospel signals the break between the first Christians and Judaism. For Christians, Jesus is the "keystone" of the building that is God's kingdom.

|-------------------------|-----------|-------------|
| Weekly Offerings | €210      | €515        |

The collection baskets at Church doors this weekend are for the Weekly Offerings Collection the October Diocesan Purposes collection as well as the Annual Collection for the Vatican (Peter's Pence), which has been rescheduled from last Summer. You can also make the Autumn Stations offering at a Sunday Mass if you cannot attend your Station Mass.

Parish Pastoral Council: The Council will host a sociable yet socially distanced loop walk from the Church around Monanimy / TopShop next Saturday (October 10) at 10.30am (following the Station Mass).

Members of the Council are ready to visit neighbours who are isolated or need assistance in this time of the pandemic. Please enquire with the parish office if you would like us to make contact.

Seanfhocal: Tá Dia láidir is tá máthair maith aige.

Entrance Hymn –

As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
One with each other, Jesus is here.
Joined by the Spirit, washed in the blood
part of the body, the Church of God.
As we are gathered, Jesus is here;
One with each other, Jesus is here.

Recessional:

Bind us together, Lord, bind us together, with cords that cannot be broken; bind us together, Lord, bind us together, bind us together with love.
There is only one God, there is only one King,
there is only one Body - that is why we sing:

Mass in the Pandemic: Hopefully Cork will remain in Level II and we can keep our churches open! Thank you for your cooperation in distancing and, wearing masks or visors and sanitizing your hands as you enter and leave.

- Please make greater use of the front seats.
- You may prefer to wait after Mass to receive Holy Communion.

Autumn Station Masses will take place in the parish churches this year, because of the public health emergency. As always, the Stations are an opportunity to pray with and for our neighbours. Stations this week:

October 4 is designated Day for Life by the Catholic Church in Ireland, Scotland, England and Wales. The theme this year is : 'Choose Life'. There were 6,666 abortions in the Republic of Ireland in 2019 and over two hundred thousand in Great Britain, including significant numbers from the island of Ireland. We, the Catholic Church, have a message of hope and a story of love; together, we can promote a culture of life. We grieve the loss of life due to abortion. We seek a change of minds and hearts about the innate dignity of the child in the womb and the care of pregnant women. Pope Francis writes, 'The gift of a new child, entrusted by the Lord to a father and a mother, begins with acceptance, continues with lifelong protection and has as its final goal the joy of eternal life ... For God allows parents to choose the name by which He himself will call their child for all eternity' (Amoris Laetitia – The Joy of Love, 166).

Bon Mot: If you smile at the world the world will smile back.
