

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

First Week of Ordinary Time (January 9-16, 2022)

22.2

Baptism of the Lord

1st Reading: With the coming of the Messiah into the world there is a new beginning for all of creation.

Psalm 103: A hymn of praise to the Lord.

2nd Reading: Salvation has been revealed to us in Christ. To truly accept him as our Saviour we must live "good and religious lives."

Gospel: The origins of Christian baptism go back to John the Baptist, who immersed those who came to him in the waters of the River Jordan as a sign of their repentance and their desire to make a new beginning. Jesus came to baptize us with the Spirit of God, making us his brothers and sisters before his beloved Father.

Children's worksheets on today's Gospel are available at church doorways

Entrance: Longing for light, we wait in darkness. Longing for truth, we turn to you; Make us your own, your holy people, Light for the world to see.
*Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness. Christ, be our light! Shine in your Church gathered today*

Recessional: *Faithful is the Lord our King Let us all in glory sing.
Ever praise in word and song:
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.
God of life and God of seed; God of nations lands and creeds; God of heaven, God of earth,
God made man in lowly birth.*

Covid 19 Pandemic: We request that you wear a face mask at church and at all other parish functions and refrain from shaking hands. Do not attend Mass if you have fever, cough, shortness of breath or a loss or change to the sense of taste or smell. Otherwise, please do come to Mass, especially Sunday Mass! Churches are among the safest environments for gathering with others: it is good for your mental as well as your spiritual health to pray with others.

- Microfilm copies of church records for Killavullen Parish from the 19th and early 20th centuries can be viewed at www.nli.ie
- During 1921, as the parish emerged from the Spanish Flu pandemic, a total of 27 baptisms took place. In 2021, as we are again working through a global pandemic, there were 8 baptisms.

Bon Mot: We live in a time of increased communication but less communion.
