

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Seventh Week of Ordinary Time (February 20-27, 2022)

22.7

Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time Trust in the Lord

1st Reading: Saul has attempted to assassinate King David. But the king escaped and managed to turn the tables on his enemy. ('Today God has put your enemy in your power'). David decides to exercise forgiveness; Saul is given a second chance.

Responsorial Psalm: A song that reminds us of God's mercy.

2nd Reading: St Paul called Jesus Christ the 'new Adam'. Sin and death came into the world through the original human beings; but now humanity has been given a new opportunity in Christ.

Gospel: The extent of Christian compassion goes beyond what is fair or just. We are called to go the extra mile, to show forgiveness even to those who wish us no good. Revenge only compounds wrongdoing. Compassion is a surprisingly effective way of achieving better relationships and a more just society.

Lord, to depart from you is to fall, to return to you is to rise up,
To remain in you is to build on solid ground.

To abandon you is to become lost, to seek you is to love you,
To see you is to possess you.

Faith urges us toward you, hope leads us to you,
Love unites us with you. Amen. St Augustine (+430ad)
