

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha 22.9

Eighth Week of Ordinary Time (February 27- March5, 2022)

Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time Day of Prayer for Temperance

1st Reading: The words we use are an important sign of our character.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lebanon Cedar, the most magnificent species of trees, praises God by its very existence. So can we by our words and song.

2nd Reading: When sin came into the world, death followed. The resurrection of Jesus has reversed the consequences of sin and opened the way new life, both in this world and the next.

Gospel: Jesus calls on his disciples to be people of integrity. Hypocrites separate their fine words from the reality of their actions. "May the spoken words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my strength and my redeemer." (Psalm 10:14)

Children's worksheets on today's liturgy are at church doorways

Day of Prayer for Temperance

Temper my desires, O Lord, and turn my focus towards you. Deliver me from the tendency to go to extremes that strain both body and soul. Help me to be content with what I have, instead of constantly seeking more.

May I come to recognize the grace of moderation that brings both contentment and appreciation.

Let temperance grow in me and lead me to discover other virtues that bring deeper union with you. Amen.
