

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Second Week of Lent (March 13-19, 2022)

22.11

Second Sunday of Lent Faith makes our life shine with God's glory.

1st Reading: The story of our faith begins with Abraham who acknowledged the existence of the one true God when he stared up at the stars one night. Abraham puts his faith in the God he cannot see, but whose covenant brings many blessings.

Responsorial Psalm 26: Those who hope in the Lord will see God's goodness.

2nd Reading: Our true homeland is heaven; there we will have a glorious body.

Gospel: The transfiguration reveals the divine nature of Jesus to the inner group of his disciples (who would also be with him at the Garden of Gethsemane). In the vision, Jesus stands alongside Elijah (representative of the Old Testament prophets) and Moses (the bringer of the Torah/Law)

- Children's worksheets on today's liturgy are at church doorways.

Entrance:

Grant to us, O Lord, a heart renewed
Recreate in us your own Spirit, Lord!

Behold the days are coming,

Says the Lord, our God,

When I will make a new covenant

With the house of Israel.

Recessional: Christ be near at either hand,
Christ behind, before me stand.

Christ with me where e'er I go.

Christ around, above below.

Christ my life and only way.

Christ my lantern night & day,

Christ be my unchanging friend.

Guide and shepherd to the end.

Covid-19 Pandemic: To greatly reduce the risk of passing the virus at Mass we ask that you sanitize your hands on entering and exiting the church and wear a face-mask at all parish functions.

Gluten Free Breads are available if you are coeliac. Let the sacristan know before Mass to arrange to receive communion in this form.

Spring Meeting of the Irish Bishops Conference: The situation in Ukraine was the main item of the annual spring meeting of the Irish bishops in Maynooth. There will be a national collection for the people and the church of Ukraine on March 26-27. Further details will be made known next weekend.

Lenten Stations: Please contact Fr Gerard if you would like to host the Station Mass for your area. The Station Mass for Annakisha, Grandy, Clenor and Clashnabrook will take place at Annakisha Church next Friday, March 18 at 7.30pm. The Mass for Castlekevin, Killuragh and Upper Kilcanway will take place at 10.00am in the Parish Office. Lenten Station Offerings, for the income of your priest can be contributed at any weekend Mass, ideally using envelope from the annual donations box.

Nano Nagle Birthplace: An hour of Lenten reflection and prayer is held on each of the Wednesdays of this holy season at 7.00pm. All are welcome.

Cloyne Synodal Process – Notices detailing the synodal process are posted on both church notice boards. You are invited to take part in an online survey of opinion by scanning the included q-code with your iPhone / android device.

Young Christian Workers: A YCW meeting will take place this Sunday (March 13) afternoon at 1.30pm in the Parish Office. Contact: Rose Murphy for details.

The 2022 Trocaire Lenten Campaign Pack which this year features the story of the people of Zimbabwe are available at Church doorways.

Copies of Revelator, magazine for Young Christians are available at doorways.

BonMot: It's not what you've got, it's what you use that makes a difference.

Humour: Astronauts use Linux because they can't open Windows in space.
