

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Fourth Week of Lent (March 19-25, 2023) 23.12

Fourth Sunday of Lent Christ the font of eternal life.

1st Reading: Samuel goes to anoint a new leader for Israel from among Jesse's seven sons. Surprisingly, it is the weakest that is the chosen one of God. David would become the first Messiah of Israel

Responsorial Psalm: Jesus Christ is our shepherd.

2nd Reading: When we are baptised, we become children of God's light.

Gospel: Jesus heals a man who has been born blind and he challenges the spiritual blindness of Pharisees who will not recognise him as the Messiah.

During the season of Lent, may we see God, the world and our own lives in a new way, enlightened by the light of Christ.

- Children's worksheets on today's Gospel are at church doorways.
- There will be a children's Liturgy of the Word at the 11.30am (Killavullen) Masses this weekend.

Grant to us, O Lord, a heart renewed Recreate in us your own Spirit, Lord!

Behold the days are coming,
Says the Lord, our God,
When I will make a new covenant
With the house of Israel.

Let's all join together in communion sweet,
walk, walk, in the light.
And love one another 'til the Saviour we meet, Walk, walk, in the light. (x 4)
Walk in the light, walk in the light of God
He left his Spirit our friend to be; He prays in you and he prays in me.
Walk, walk, walk in the light.

Trocaire Lenten Campaign: Today we celebrate mothers and those in a mothering role who work tirelessly to create a positive environment in which their children can thrive. In Somalia and other countries around the world, Trocaire provides maternal care for expectant and new mothers. Your support for Trocaire will provide healthcare to mothers and babies and train new midwives in one of the most fragile countries in the world.

Bon Mot: A mother understands what a child does not say. (Jewish proverb) "He who has not travelled widely thinks that his mother is the best cook."
