

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Second Week of Lent (March 16 - 22, 2025) 25.11

Second Sunday of Lent Faith makes our life shine with God's glory.

First Reading: The story of our faith begins with Abraham who acknowledged the existence of the one true God when he stared up at the stars one night. Abraham puts his faith in the God he cannot see; his covenant with God brings many blessings.

Psalms 26: Those who hope in the Lord will see God's goodness.

Second Reading: Our true homeland is heaven; we will share in God's glory.

Gospel: The transfiguration reveals the divine nature of Jesus to the inner group of his disciples (who would also be with him at the Garden of Gethsemane). In the vision, Jesus stands alongside Elijah (representative of the Old Testament prophets) and Moses (the bringer of the Torah/Law)

- The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated on Saturday evening at 6.30pm in the Reconciliation Room.
- At Masses this weekend (and every other weekend) a Children's Liturgy of the Word will take place.

*Grant To Us, O Lord, A Heart Renewed;
Recreate In Us Your Own Spirit, Lord!
Behold, The Days Are Coming,
Says The Lord Our God,
When I Will Make A New Covenant With
The House Of Israel.*

Let's all join together in Communion
sweet, Walk, walk, in the light.
And love one another 'til the Saviour we meet, Walk, walk, in the light.
Walk in the light, walk in the light,
Walk in the light,
walk in the light of the Lord.

At Masses this weekend we welcome Fiona Kiely, from Rathcormac Parish, who will speak on the Lenten Trócaire campaign 2025. The family of Julio, Lima and their four children, who feature in this year's campaign, live in Guatemala, a country that is one of the least responsible for climate change but is one of the most severely affected by it. As we stand in solidarity with them, we also pray that our national and global leaders will take the necessary actions for climate justice and listen, with compassion, to the cry of the poor.

Weekly Lenten Prayer Meeting continues next Wednesday (March 19) in the prayer-room of Nano Nagle Birthplace from 2.30-3.00pm. The time for reflection will focus on the Gospel for next Sunday. All are most welcome.

Lenten Stations - If you would like to host a Station for your immediate area / townland this Lent please contact Fr Gerard. The Parish Pastoral Council will host a general Station Mass, followed by refreshments in Killavullen Church next Friday, March 21 at 7.30pm.

Koinonia Magazine 2025: Copies of a new magazine for adult faith development and parish ministry in the Diocese of Cloyne are available at Masses this weekend. Suggested donation: €2.
