

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Twenty Seventh Week of Ordinary Time (October 4-10, 2026) 26.37

Twenty Seventh Sunday: We are workers in the Vineyard of the Lord.

First Reading: Isaiah compares the glory of God's creation to a vineyard that has been badly managed by its caretakers.

Responsorial Psalm 79: A prayer that God will restore the vineyard.

Second Reading: Our faith in God and fellowship with Jesus gives us a peace that the world, for all its troubles, cannot take away.

Gospel: Another of Matthew's vineyard parables: God is the landowner who planted the vineyard, but it only yields bitter fruit. His only Son would suffer the same fate as the prophets before him. He was the stone rejected by the builder who became the cornerstone to a new covenant.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated at 6.30pm on Saturday in the Reconciliation Room at Killavullen or any time requested. Following the Vigil Mass the PPC invites you to join us for refreshments in the church foyer.

Fr. Gerard Condon PP. Tel.: 022-46578;

Glory and praise to our God.

Who alone gives light to our days.

Many are the blessings he bears;

To those who trust in his ways.

We the daughters and sons of him - Who built the valleys and plains. Praise and wonder our

God has done, in every heart that sings:

*Bind us together, Lord, bind us together, with cords that cannot be broken; bind us together, Lord, bind us together, bind us together with love. There is only one God,
there is only one King,
there is only one Body -
that is why we sing:*

Autumn Offerings for the support of your parish priest, can be made at this time. Thank you. If you would like to host a Station Mass for your area, please contact Fr Gerard this week. Please note that the Station Mass is a gathering of neighbours in the station area, rather than extended family members. Station for Slumber Hill, Knockbrack, Beenaskehly, Tooreen, etc: Noreen and Anthony O'Keeffe, on Oct. 9 at 7.30pm. Station for Ballygown, Powerstown, Dromdeer, etc., October 22: Susan O'Keeffe.

Altar-servers aged Fourth Class and upwards are welcome to join a new rota for 2026-2027. Altar-servers assist at Sunday Mass every second weekend. Siblings / friends usually serve together. Parental consent forms are available from the sacristy this weekend.

Cloyne Koinōnía Magazine 2026 –traces the development of the Pastoral Areas in Cloyne over the past year and the synodal pathway of the church in Ireland. There are articles on the Bible, how to choose music for weddings and funerals and stories of inspiring people, poems and prayers. The magazine highlights emerging roles for laypeople, in Parish Pastoral Councils, Pastoral Care and Funeral Ministry. Available at church doors.

Advance notice: For the weekend of the National Synodal Assembly (October 17-18 only) the Summer Mass schedule will take place: Vigil Mass at 7.00pm in Annakisha; Sunday 10.00am Mass in Killavullen.

Reader's Rota: A new rota for readers of the Word of God at Mass will begin from October 31. New readers are welcome; readers who wish not to be in the 2026-2027 rota: please contact let Fr Gerard Thought for Today: "Consult not your fears but your hopes and dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you have tried and failed in, but with what is still possible for you to do." Saint Pope John XXIII.
