

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Thirty-first Week of Ordinary Time (November 1-6, 2026) 26.42

Feast of All Saints

First Reading:* The final book of the New Testament is an imaginative account of the afterlife. It was written at the end of the First Century, in the context of the persecuted Church. Jesus, the Lamb of God, gave his life to redeem us from death. The martyrs have dedicated their lives to God in a similar manner to that of Jesus.
Resp. Psalm: The practice of our faith helps our search for God.
Second Reading: The letter of St John reminds us that in Christ we have become children of God.
Gospel: The Beatitudes are a cornerstone of the Christian way of life. We can find beatitude (joy of God) even in life's difficult experiences and generous choices, because the Lord ultimately honours those who honours him.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is celebrated at 6.30pm on Saturday in the Reconciliation Room at Killavullen or any time requested.

Glory and praise to our God.
Who alone gives light to our days.
Many are the blessings he bears;
To those who trust in his ways.
We the daughters and sons of him - Who built the valleys and plains. Praise and wonder our God has done, in every heart that sings:

Bind us together, Lord, bind us together, with cords that cannot be broken; bind us together, Lord, bind us together, bind us together with love. There is only one God, there is only one King,
there is only one Body -
that is why we sing:

November, marks a month of prayerful remembrance for the faithful departed, those we have known and loved ourselves and the generations who have gone before us. Their faith in God and goodness towards others has brought us many blessings. May they rest in the peace only God can give.
This Sunday (November 1), there will be prayer services in four of the parish's cemeteries: at Annakisha and Killavullen Churchyards following Sunday Mass; at Carrigacunna (Killavullen New Cemetery) at 2.30pm and at Monanimy at 3.15pm.

Lord God, whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice,
That we may serve you in union with the whole Church,
Sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly journey is ended, lead us rejoicing into your kingdom, where you live for ever and ever. Amen
