

Parish of Killavullen and Annakisha

Thirty-second Week of Ordinary Time (November 8-14, 2026) 26.43

Thirty Second Sunday:
First Reading: In the Bible, Wisdom is closely associated with the presence of God in the world. To seek and find her is a lifelong task.
Responsorial Psalm 62: Our spirit longs for a fulfilment that can only be found in God.
Second Reading: One of the earliest reflections of St Paul on our resurrection: By their union with Jesus those who die will be raised to new life. Our eternal soul "will meet the Lord in the air".
Gospel: The five wise bridesmaids were well prepared for the arrival of the bridegroom. Christian life is a waiting in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour: will we have our lamps lit and ready?

Glory and praise to our God.
Who alone gives light to our days.
Many are the blessings he bears;
To those who trust in his ways.
We the daughters and sons of him - Who built the valleys and plains. Praise and wonder our God has done, in every heart that sings:

Bind us together, Lord, bind us together, with cords that cannot be broken; bind us together, Lord, bind us together, bind us together with love. There is only one God,
there is only one King,
there is only one Body -
that is why we sing:

We give them back to you God - Fr Bede Jarrett O.P.

We give them back to you God, Who gave them to us.
Yet as you not lose them in the giving,
So we do not lose them by their return.
Not as the world gives, do you give, O lover of souls.
What you give, you do not take away
For what is yours is ours if we are yours.
And life is eternal and love is immortal,
and death is only an horizon,
and an horizon is nothing save the limit of our sights.
Lift us up, Son of God, that we may see further;
cleanse our eyes that we may see more clearly:
draw us closer to yourself that we may know ourselves to be nearer to our loved ones who are with you.
And while you do prepare a place for us,
prepare us also for that blessed place,
that where you are, we may also be. Amen.
